Key Items:

- Communication is KEY!
- Please subscribe to Remind 101 for updates.
- Check out Wylie FFA Supporter Club and Wylie East FFA Supporter Club Facebook pages.
- You are free to contact Mrs. Pruett, Ms. McAlister and Mr. Vernon at any time with questions, comments or concerns.
 - However, please do not call or text after 7:00pm on any day or before 2:00pm on Sunday unless there is an emergency.
- If any emergency arises, contact your species sponsor.
- Things that are considered an emergency:
 - Excessive bleeding of an animal
 - Any life-threatening situation of an animal
 - A major accident
 - Crime
- Determine if it can wait until the next morning.

EXPECTATIONS

- The expectation of students is that we will work hard and continue to get better every day!
- Routines are key! - Seek out student mentors, Officer Team Members or Wylie ISD Ag Teachers/Species Sponsors for help when developing a routine for your animal.

- Responsibility - Responsibility is learned by doing things right and learning how to succeed with your project.
- Everyday your pen needs to be combed for feces, your animal needs to be fed properly with guidance of your species sponsor, have clean water and a routine will take place.

PARENTS

- Your involvement is CRUCIAL!
- Opportunities are endless for parental involvement in the Wylie FFA and Wylie East FFA.
- Help us make this program the best program Wylie has to offer; your child will benefit from it.
- Wylie FFA Supporter Club:
 - President - Kara Wallis, (972)979-9250 or K-Tankersley@hotmail.com
- Wylie East FFA Supporter Club:
 - President - Donny McKay, (951)533-7586 or DMcKay@amsecusa.com
- Please contact anyone on either Supporter Club on how to become more involved into your students FFA Chapter!
