

Rules Governing All Exhibits at the Wylie Show and Sale

Section I. GENERAL RULES

1. The show will be open to all FFA members who are regularly enrolled in an Agriculture science class within the Wylie Independent School District, who are in good standing with the chapter, and have paid all FFA dues. Junior FFA members can participate if they have paid all FFA dues to the Wylie FFA or Wylie East FFA and are in good standing with the chapter.
(4-H show participation notice was sent to the CEA office September 2016)
2. Validation for the Wylie Show and Sale will be set by the agriculture teachers and will be a requirement to show. This validation will include any steers, swine, lambs, goats and heifers. All sheep, goats, pigs, steers and heifers will be Texas Major Show Validated in order to show. This includes both market and breeding Animals. The Texas validation tag must be in the child's name or the child's sibling's name to exhibit the animal. Animals must be validated through Wylie High FFA or Wylie East FFA.
3. A copy of breeding animal papers must be turned in to the Ag Science Teacher by date specified by teachers. If they are not on file, you will not enter that animal in the breeding show. You must have registered breeding papers or must fill out the breeding paper that is attached to the rules.
4. All exhibitors may enter up to two market animals and an unlimited number of breeding animals. Students are eligible to sell one animal in the live auction if said animal qualifies for the auction.
5. WSS entry deadline will coincide with the Major Stock Show Entry Night set by the WISD Ag Teachers each year.
6. All entrants must adhere to the Wylie ISD school policies.
7. Entrants must be enrolled in a Wylie ISD. A student enrolled in DAEP second semester will be ineligible to show. Students must be enrolled in WISD the six weeks prior to the show and sale.
8. The exhibitor must own all market animals by validation date and by specified date for all breeding animals.
9. All animals and birds shown must be free of disease, in good health, and well groomed.
10. The owner must show all entries unless an Agriculture Science Teacher has granted permission otherwise. Substitutions can only be made if the exhibitor is ill or hospitalized. If an exhibitor does not meet UIL rules, the animal will not show.
11. Exhibitors of market steers, lambs, goats, heifers, and pigs must show the animals they validated at the given dates for validation. Exhibitors of poultry (broilers) must have purchased them through the Wylie Show and Sale ordering process. All poultry shown must be wing banded.
12. Judging will be done by competent judges whose decision will be final. The judge's decision cannot be disputed.

Revised August 2019

13. If an exhibitor is not present when his or her animal is to be shown, the animal will be disqualified unless prior arrangements have been made with the Ag Science Teacher.
